

A detailed rendering of a casino floor. In the center is a large, oval-shaped roulette table with a blue felt top and a black border. The table is surrounded by several orange upholstered chairs. To the left and right of the roulette table are long rows of slot machines with blue and white screens. The floor is covered in a blue carpet with a complex, repeating pattern of red and gold floral motifs. The ceiling features several large, circular, illuminated light fixtures. The overall atmosphere is vibrant and modern.
